THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 8, 1865 NO. 305.

BY J. L. PENNINGTON.

Gen. Green on the Stump.

According to the reporter of the Columbus (Miss.) Index, that erudite but eccentric genius, Gen. D. M. Green, thus spoke at a recent political meeting at Moore's Bluff:

Gen'lemen and Fellow-Citizens:—I'm a candit—candit for Curiner—candit for curiner of your county. I was brought out by my neighbors. Some of 'em hollered at me over the fence t other day as I was feedin' my chickens—says they, Green—Gineral, says they, thar's a good many fellers cumin out for office, now why don't you run for sumthin? The darkies, says they is all free now, you'd better run for Curiner—plenty cases of starvation, frezin and suiside.—From that I begin to scratch my head on it, so, I says to myself, says I, "Green, old boy, you've had a long, rough road of it through life, quit plowin and mawlin rails now and commence doin a little brain work, git a fat office and live hereafter on the good will of the suvins. [Applause.] So I cum out.—Thar's five runin agin for the same office—but they ain't a here letter citizens—whur is they? Why ain't they here advocatin of thar claims afore you? I think I smell a rat in it, gen'lemen—they're 'fraid to tork to you. I luv to work—I luv fat hogs, I luv to see the corn-fields of progress a growin in the prary lands of Amerikin liberty. [Immense applaus.]—I'm a Know Nothin by politics. [Applause.] I foreseed this late war a cumin on and I was opposed to the North recruitin' by forrin' emigration. And you see, neighbers, what things is cum to now.—[Prolonged applause.] Thar's a bundle of trash I've got on hand (pat's a package of Confed. in an emphatic manner); three thousand dollars—sold my corn for it just before the surrender. That's my fix gen'lemen. My hogs is gitten poor liven on water and akerns. I'm worried out a livin on hope myself—give me fifty bushels of corn and I won't run for Curiner. (Here a decidedly sympathectic sensation was visible in the audience.) I don't think they can find anything agin my character—my neighbers call me a honest, hard working old feller. (Voice from the crowd desires to know something about that "rotten wood.") Who says I hauled rotten wood to town and sold it for sound? He tells a lie! When I haul wood I git the best dry pine and good oak and hickory, and my loads was always heavy on the best par of horses. (Here the General entered into a philosophical analysis of the properties of good and rotten wood, whose technical nature forbids both memory and desire from recording.) But I'm gitten off the pint, I must close up. I'm hungry and patriotic. I want office. If you vote for me I'll be elected; if you don't vote for me I won't be elected. I ain't particular what the other candits is arter, but as for me, give me fifty bushels of corn or give me the curinership of this county."

The General, says the reporter, closed his remarks amid tumultuous applause.

A Man Murdered in his own Bed Room.—During the forenoon of yesterday, the dead body of Mr. John Connell, a native of Ireland, aged apparently about fifty years, was found in his room in the third story of the building known as the Franklin Hotel, on Red Cross street. Mr. Connell was employed as watchman at the depot of the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, and has been missing since Tuesday, the 31st ultimo. Those who saw the body, represented it to be the most awful sight they ever witnessed. His head and face were considerably swollen, and so completely covered with blood as to render it a first difficult to identify. Yesterday afternoon Coroner J. C. Wood summoned a jury and proceeded at once to the scene of the murder, for the purpose of holding an inquest.

The investigation continued until after night-fall when the jury postponed the further examination of the case until 10 A. M., to-day. We understand that suspicion rests upon a certain party, and that an order for his arrest has been issued. The case will probably be concluded to-day, and in Monday's issue will appear a full account of the facts as developed before the jury of inquest.

An Extraordinary Story.—A Nashville paper tells an extraordinary story of an occurence at the siege of Atlanta, Ga. The city had become accustomed to the bombardment, business and pleasure were suspended, and dullness reigned. Some officers, to relieve the monotony arranged for a masked ball at one of the hospitals. One lady who attended was murdered by an officer of high rank, but his name has never been revealed. She was found strangled, and an inquest was held and several parties implicated in the crime. The evacuation of the city, however, interrupted the course of justice, and the tragedy passed into a whisper and mere gossip. The Confederate Major General Wharton, whose name has somewhat become associated with the murder, was not in Atlanta at the time. Most of the officers and many of the ladies who attended that ball are now in their graves, and the murderer probably will never be judged on earth.

—A Western juggler has adopted a new name for his profession. He calls it "Maginistechnesanthropos."

—The famous Thames Tunnel, England, has been sold for a million dollars to a railway company.

—It is reported that Ralph Waldo Emerson lost his entire property by the Concord Bank robbery, except his homestead.

—The planters of Cuba have addressed a memorial to the court of Madrid, asking for an abolition of slavery on the island.

—Mrs. Lincoln has acknowledged the receipt of $8,048, the contributions of the people of Rhode Island to the "Lincoln Testimonial Fund."

—A Frenchman cannot pronounce "ship" The word sounds "sheep" in his month. Seeing an iron-clad, he said to a boy, "Ish dish a war sheep?" "No," replied the boy, "it's a ram."

—A Cairo paper says that at the hanging of two negroes in that city, "everything passed off pleasantly." No doubt the negroes "passed off" very pleasantly.

—There has been an immense conflagration in the large town of Tiaslee-Osero, Government of Samara, Russia, and 278 houses have been reduced to ashes.

—The ex Rebel General Hood is said to be in a destitute condition. The citizens of San Antonio, Texas, are taking up subscriptions to purchase a home for him in that State.

—The Atlanta papers of Oct. 27 announce the arrival there of Mr. Stephens, en route to his home. One of the Augusta papers nominates Mr. Stephens for Governor.

—In New Hampshire and Connecticut, despite President Johnson's proclamation, the Governors have named the last Thursday in November as the day of Thanksgiving.

—The London Times has set afloat a sensation story of some disagreement between our Government and that of France, but it was generally regarded as wholly unfounded.

—The "Captain" was asked by a lady the other evening if he loved oysters. "My dear madam,' he replied, "my love for oysters amounts to a few raw (furore)."

—Mr. Henry Watterson, a son of the distinguished former member of Congress from Tennessee, is about to revive the Nashville Banner, and is to be assisted by Albert Roberts, "John Happy."

—In Richmond, on Wednesday, Messrs. Stokes & Co. sold a crop of tobacco for Messrs Reid & McCam, of Reidsville, N. C., one hogshead selling at $95.00, one at $55.00, one at $32,00, and one at $30.00.

—Governor Fenton has issued a proclamation invoking the people of New York to keep Thursday, the 7th of December next, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, in accordance with the request of the President of the United States.

—Whisky is now tested by the distance a man can walk after tasting it. The liquor called "tangle leg" is said to be made of diluted alcohol, nitric acid, boot leg and tobacco, and will upset a man at a distance of four hundred yards from the demijohn.

—Three persons were rescued from drowning, at Eastborne, England, during the bathing season, who respectively tendered to their rescuer the sum of 5s., 2s. 6d. and 8d. They must have been brave men, for they held their lives at a cheap rate.

—The Des Moines State Register of October 24 publishes returns from 77 counties of Iowa, nearly all official. They give to Governor Stone 15,478 majority. Twenty counties, nearly all Republican, are yet to be heard from, and will increase Stone's majority to at least 16,000.

—A trial has been in progress at Lawrence, Mass., which was concluded on Saturday, of several parties for riding John Wheeler, of Gloucester, on a rail, April 19, for thanking God that President Lincoln was shot. All the accused, except Austin D. Bray, were acquitted.

—It is reported that Hampton Roads is shortly to be the rendezvous of a large and important fleet of our naval vessels, the steamship Vanderbilt and the monitor Monadnock, which arrived there on Saturday, being the pioneers of this maritime gathering. From this point, it is said, vessels will be despatched to our squadrons in different parts of the world.

—The Scientific American mentions a new design for small coin, which consists in making them in the form of the numeral of the denomination they represent, as 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. By this device all confusion in the use of the coins, even in the darkest night, will be avoided; but it is a question whether they would not soon punch holes in the pocket.

—Reorganization in Arkansas has progressed quietly, and is a success. President Johnson informed the Governor of that State that there will be no interference with its government; and not only does he invite the State to resume its former relations with the Federal Government, but promises it all the aid of the power of the government in the premises.

—Benjamin F. Church, who was charged with having killed, in a melee at Jacksonville, Illinois, a man named Campbell, who was disturbing a Fourth of July celebration by shouting for Jeff. Davis and the Confederacy, was sentenced on the 18th inst., to two years in the Penitentiary, and was pardoned by Gov. Oglesby the next day.

—Sam Tilden was descanting in the presence of President Johnson, upon the repulsive appearance of the oyster. "It isn't handsome Sam," said the President, "but it has the advantage of you in one thing," "what is that?" queried Tilden, who is known as an exhaustless talker. "It knows when to shut its mouth," replied Mr. Johnson.

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

The Cholera and a Remedy.—We intend to acquit ourselves of all blame in the premises if the cholera should unexpectedly sweep over our country and find us unprepared to ameliorate the attack. The people here have been warned as the rapidity with which the epidemic moves, but it is still important as a precaution to furnish them with those recipes for its treatment which appear by practical tests to have been most successful. A French physician of eminence, Dr. A. de Grand Boulogne, who has witnessed fourteen cholera epidemics, says:

"Cholera is the result in nineteen out of twenty cases, of a choleraic diarrhœa, which may always be easily cured by timely treatment. What is important to know is whether the diarrhœa be choleraic or not. The general rule in time of epidemics should be to pay the strictest attention to the state of the patient's bowels. If the evacuations be formed of aqueous matter similar in appearance to very clear cafe au lait, to rice water, to dishwater, or to tea stirred with a few drops of milk, then, whatever be the general condition of the patient, although he may be suffering neither from pain nor weakness, he has the cholera. The progress of the disease has then to be arrested by the use of peppermint, of which the patient must drink half a cupful every quarter of an hour; it is to be taken quite hot, sweetened, and the addition of two table-spoonsful of rum or old cognac, together with twenty drops of tincture of cinnamon. Perspiration is then produced, and the infusion is continued till the motions are checked. Three hours generally suffice for this. If the medicine thus administered promotes signs of intoxication, this is to be regarded as a favorable sign of recovery; if it cause vomitings, then it is to be discontinued, and a small glass of old cognac or of green chartreuse is to be substituted in its place, which is to be taken every quarter of an hour. When the disease has reached its crisis, it is generally necessary to confine the treatment mainly to alcoholized aromatics, energetic frictions, injections not too strongly etherized, rubbing the limbs, and to use every suitable means for increasing the circulation and exciting the nervous system.

Remember this.

Look Out for Counterfeits.—There is now in circulation an imitation of the $100 note, well executed, and calculated to deceive any but the most experienced. This is the U. S. compound interest note.

U. S. Treasury note, 50s, well executed; appear to be from a new plate.

Legal-tender notes (greenbacks) $20s., have made their appearance. They are an exact imitation of the genuine. 10s and 100s the same. 5s photographed—paper stiffer than the genuine, and not so good. They have a blurred appearance, while the signatures show through more plainly than on the good note. 10s altered from 1s; vignette on upper left ova portrait of Chase, 10 below it; 10 on upper right: the signature of both Register and Treasurer are on the lower right corner, they are well done and calculated to deceive the unwary, although nothing like the genuine, which have for a vignette a spread eagle with 10 each side; on the left side is the portrait of President Lincoln, on the right end a full length female figure; the signature of the Register is on the lower left, and that of the Treasurer on the lower right. 50s altered from 2s; in the genuine 50s the signature of the Register is on the left, and that of the Treasurer on the right; in the altered note they are both on the right end with two stripes of lath between them. 1s, imitation of genuine; the green ink is somewhat lighter than the genuine; some parts of the note are scratched; the head of Chase is darker; the bill has a coarse appearance. 2s altered from 1s; portrait of Chase on upper left corner.

The business community cannot use too much circumspection.

Good Idea.—A housekeeper, who has had his attention drawn to the prices of food in our market which our laboring men are compelled to pay, suggests that a stock company be formed to purchase articles for home consumption from the producers in the country, and sell them at retail to the members of the organization at an advance merely sufficient to pay all expenses. The writer is not the only one who has had his wits sharpened by the high prices at which not only meats, vegetables, butter, eggs, etc., but houses, are held here. A remedy is needed for all these things and we shall be glad to see any organized plan put in operation which will punish extortioners.

The government sale of horses, mules, &c., said to be the closing one, commenced here yesterday and attracted a vast concourse of people from town and country. The purchases were very fair and the sum realized quite handsome.

We hear that several days will be necessary to complete the sales.

The petition for the pardon of Jefferson Davis, which was mentioned yesterday as circulating here for the signature of ladies, was drawn by a Virginian lady, an adopted daughter of North Carolina. We understand the paper has already been numerously signed.

Annoying.—Gentlemen frequently congregate on the corners of streets in the city, thereby seriously inconveniencing ladies who desire to pass. The evil is a growing one and should be discontinued.

The Speaking Last Night.—There was a large turn out of the people last night upon the notice of the morning papers that Hon. Kenneth Rayner, one of the candidates for the House of Commons, would speak in the court-house.

At the hour appointed, Mr. Rayner appeared on the stand and first referred to his public career, commencing in the state legislature in 1835. His review of the public measures of local interest with which he had been connected from that year to 1861, was concise but complete, and he challenged denial of the fidelity of the statements made with respect to his course.

In regard to present state policy, he was hostile to the repeal of the existing stay law until the capabilities of the people to meet their old obligations were improved. At this moment the masses were bankrupt as a consequence of the war and if that protective measure (the stay law) should be withdrawn, speculators and a few fortunate money holders would devour the people.

Speaking of the depressed condition of the public treasury and old bonds, the holders being ready to accept such a plan, he would approve funding the coupons attached to them, thus securing time sufficient to meet an indebtedness which no one proposed to repudiate.

But something else was to be done—our great trouble was want of capital upon which to begin anew and with which to reinvigorate our public benefices. Mr. Rayner alluded very touchingly to the prostration of industry and the general disorganization of the South as evidenced in the inability of young and gallant men, returned from the army, to secure employment either for their talent or skill. He would as a step in the work of resuscitation, borrow money upon state credit as had been recently done by Georgia, economically as the magnitude of the interests to be advanced would warrant. With such loan as the foundation of new operations, we should be able in the course of time to retrieve much that had been lost—to reconstruct individual fortunes and restore public prosperity to our glorious old State.

In reference to his opinions upon topics of national import, in the past as well as now, he spoke liberally. He had been accused previous to the war of abolitionism, of secessionism and then of Unionism. He claimed to have battled for the preservation of the unity of the government long before the actual rupture, foreseeing that the unceasing irritation of the country with the slavery question would ultimately provoke war and lead to such calamity. He endeavored to thrust the negro out of the counsels of the American party when it was organized, knowing it would impair its efficiency, but failed. He had consistently supported the idea of the government as a whole because he realized that not only slavery, but other important interests of the South could be maintained and perpetuated only in such circumstances and within the light of our common constitution. We had lost slavery and gained calamities by the very errors against which he had sought throughout a long public life to guard his State and section.

When the issue of war came, however—when he returned to the State from the South in 1861—and found that Virginia and South Carolina had already seceded; when at every step he either saw or could hear the notes of preparation for conflict, he yielded to the inextricable surroundings and not only sympathized with his section, but wished for its success all the time. He comprehended long before the end, however, that our struggle was hopeless and believed that, even at the Hampton Roads conference, we could have made advantageous terms, even though slavery was even then lost.

Mr. Rayner in avowing himself for Gov. Holden, paid that functionary a high tribute for his fidelity to the trust reposed in his hands. He knew something of the solicitude the Governor felt; believed Mr. Holden possessed more fully the confidence of the President than any other provisional governor; and should vote for him both from a sense of interest and duty to the country.

The disposition he would make of the negro was identical with what Gens. Schofield, Slocum, Cox and Hon. Montgomery Blair advocated for the race: separate colonization. He would not under any circumstances favor negro suffrage or the reception of their testimony in court as against white men.

We regret that our space forbids a fuller statement of this really forcible speech, which was frequently interrupted by applause.

Bartholomew Moore, Esq., took the stand in response to a call just as we were compelled to leave the court house. We understand, however, that he did not avow himself as to his choice for governor.

Several other gentlemen who are candidates for lesser offices addressed the assemblage, after which the crowd dispersed.

Let the friends of Holden elsewhere be assured that Wake county will roll up an overwhelming majority for her favorite son and the early restoration of the State to the blessings of civil government. We invoke every patriot to the rescue—the factionists must be crushed beyond the hope of resurrection or redemption. It is the issue of life or death—of freedom or bondage—of prosperity or poverty, individual and collective, for the State! North Carolinians, arouse for the battle!

Counting Noses.—An old liner in politics says he counted noses, yesterday, among his acquaintance from the country and out of fourteen only four were for Jonathan Worth against Holden. A pretty fair illustration, he thinks, of the political complexion of North Carolina.

Election Thursday, 9th November, 1865.

FOR CONGRESS:

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT,

COL. J. P. H. RUSS,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

"Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and orever.—ANDREW JOHNSON TO GOV. HOLDEN.

Jonathan Worth, and the "Sentinel," the organ of the disaffected faction that brought him forward for Governor, are in favor of taxing the people to pay the rebel State debt.

Who Should be Elected to Congress.

We admonish the people of North Carolina not to vote for any man who cannot subscribe the famous test oath.

Hon. Edward McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States, and who has been stumping New Jersey in behalf of the Union ticket, will control the matter of recognition and non-recognition until the organization of the next Congress has been effected, will not even entertain the certificates of men who are eligible under the oath mentioned.

The Philadelphia Press, speaking for him on the subject, says:

"The published statements purporting to anticipate, and even to shape, the course that Mr. McPherson may take in the organization of the new national House of Representatives, were unauthorized. We think his work has been made comparatively easy by late developments. Certainly no patriotic man, whatever his past opinions may have been, would except the Clerk of the House to place the names of men on the initial roll who cannot take the same oaths that have been sworn to by the Senators and members of all parties. This would be to make an exception, with a vengeance, in favor of treason. How can any hope be indulged in any quarter that the clerk should enroll persons claiming to be elected from States that refuse or hesitate to repudiate the rebel war debt. On these two subjects the sentiment is not political. We knew of no "Democratic" Congressman, or Senator even, who would not denounce Mr. McPherson if he took the responsibility of allowing such applicants to worm themselves into seats from which they would immediately be ejected. We hear of no serious opposition to Mr. McPherson's re-election. He has the united support of the representatives of the Union party, and the respect of all who have been associated with him, of whatever present political complexion."

The Army.

Official orders have been issued for a further reduction of our national army, by the disbandment of fifty-four regiments, consisting of organizations of both white and colored troops, in addition to those heretofore announced. Besides this, it is expected that in a short time the majority of the veteran reserves will be mustered out of service, as department commanders have been instructed by the war department to ascertain what officers and enlisted men of that corps desire to leave the army, and to immediately grant discharges to all such. It is alleged that as a general thing the privates of this organization desire to be mustered out, while the officers, finding themselves in comfortable positions, wish to be retained in the service of the country, and are making strong efforts to accomplish their object.

Out at Last!

The Standard understands, on unquestionable authority, that Jo. Turner declared at Haywood that if Andrew Johnson were now a candidate for the Presidency, he "would not vote for him to save his life!" Here it is at last. Col. Russ forced it out of the gentleman.

This confirms what we have repeatedly charged, that Turner, Pell, Worth and Co., are all hostile at heart to Andrew Johnson. Let Worth be elected, and a powerful party would at once exist in this State against the administration of Andrew Johnson.

Look at this Fact.

It is a most noteworthy fact, says the Wilmington Herald, that every administration paper in the North announces Holden as the union candidate in this State, and Worth as the candidate of the party opposed to the Union. The issue is joined. The whole country is to be the judge. Think twice before you vote.

THERE is said to be a movement on foot, on the part of the radical Republicans, to bring out Charles Sumner, of Massachusetts, as their candidate for the Presidency in 1868. This movement is the result of a conviction on their part that President Johnson intends to conduct his administration upon conservative and Democratic principles, and that all hopes of winning him over to their way of thinking must be abandoned. Let them bring Sumner out by all means.

John P. Hale's magnificent "splurge," on the occasion of his presentation as United States Minister to the Queen of Spain, is receiving some very sharp criticisms at the hands of the Republican journals.—As a specimen of diplomatic composition it must unquestionably rank high, as it is the finest effort yet made in the line of American "highfalutin."

A letter from Newbern says: "The policy of President Johnson in the reconstruction of the Union is warmly endorsed by all our loyal citizens, and the feeling is unmistakably in favor of his choice in our Provisional Governor.

The Richmond Enquirer says that if Wendell Phillips and his admirers will first educate the negro and fit him for the high duties of American citizenship, they will find no one opposed to his exercising the elective franchise.

—A portion of the United States cavalry recently sent to Charlotte for the purpose of being disbanded were mustered out of service on the 31st ultimo.

Hon. Mr. Reagan's Account of the Capture of Mr. Davis.

In the course of conversation at the Astor House, in New York, Mr. Reagan gave a detailed account of the flight and capture of Jefferson Davis and himself, which we trust will be interesting as setting at rest the silly stories in regard to it. After describing the difficulties and dangers encountered on the road up to the time of their surprise by the United States troops, which, being in two detachments, fired upon each other in the dark, Mr. Reagan said:

"Mr. Davis, immediately on hearing the firing, sprang from the place where he had been passing the night and advanced toward the door of the tent. As he did so, thinking that the firing proceeded from the marauders of the Alabama brigade before mentioned, who probably had come in contact with his own small escort, intent on plunder and carnage, he exclaimed aloud: 'Those men have attacked us at last; surely I have authority enough left to prevent my own men from killing one another.' Saying this, he opened the door of his tent and was just stepping out, when his wife, either beside herself with terror and not knowing clearly what were the nature of her acts, or thinking that the garment might render him unrecognisable to his pursuers threw a morning gown over his shoulders. At that moment he was captured."

The Man Who has not Slept Since 1851.

There is a man in this city, to make a brief story, who has not slept a moment since August, 1851, over fourteen years. He resides in the town of Buffalo, Putnam county, West Virginia, near where he was born, and where he has spent the most of his life. His business here was to bring the remains of Mr. Joseph Anthony, son of Mr. Asa Anthony, who died in Buffalo in consequence of an accident by which a leg was broken, and not from typhoid fever, as has been erroneously stated. The name of the sleepless man is C. D. Saunders. He is in his forty-sixth year, and has a wife and seven children. He is a true patriot, and served in the Thirteenth Virginia volunteers until mustered out this Spring.

He visited our sanctum yesterday, in company with Mr. Anthony, and from his own lips we derived the facts regarding his extraordinary constitutional peculiarity. He possesses a candid, open countenance, which goes far to impress the hearer with the truth of his statements. He never feels fatigue, even when working day and night. He says he once worked on his farm forty-two days successfully, putting in thirty acres of wheat, and during the same period worked all night, hanging up his tobacco crop and husking corn, without a moment's sleep, and at the end of the time felt as fresh and vigorous as on the first day. He served in the Shenandoah Valley, and was in General Hunter's army during the celebrated raid on Lynchburg. When the soldiers were leaning against trees and dropping to the ground from the terrible fatigue of the march, Mr. Saunders felt no need of rest, but with the exception of hunger, was as active and ready for service as when he set out.

He took part in all the heavy fighting in the Valley under Sheridan, and was in the battles of Cedar Creek, Fisher's Hill, Winchester, &c. He was at last attacked by chronic diarrhœa, and was sent to one of the Philadelphia hospitals, where he passed last winter. Here his constitutional peculiarity attracted the attention of the surgeons and nurses, and a watch was set upon him. He was closely observed night and day, for fifty-eight days, but was never detected asleep, and it was then concluded that his account of himself was true. He made an excellent picket guard in the army, and years ago he worked on an Ohio river steamer as night watchman, being able to do duty in the daytime, and earning double wages. His appetite and digestion are excellent, and he requires rather more food than an ordinary man of his build.

We have heard of persons sleeping continuously a sort of lethargic, morbid sleep, but the case of a healthy man doing without sleep is a rare one indeed, and almost incredible. There is nothing remarkable in Mr. Saunders' appearance, except that his eyes seemed a little watery and slightly dilated. It is possible that he is a humbug, but we give the facts as he related them to us. We should say that Mr. Anthony, whom we can vouch for as an honest man, is also impressed with the truth of Mr. Saunders' story.

Hon. Josiah Turner, So-called.

Mr. Josiah Turner, of Orange county, a candidate for Congress in the Raleigh District, drew up a petition for pardon, in which he bitterly assailed the old Democratic party, and falsely accused it of bringing all the evils upon the country. And then he had the impudence to ask Gov. Holden to endorse it favorably. The Governor very properly refused to recommend the petition of a man who was so full of party malice, and the result is that the "so-called" Hon. Josiah Turner is opposing Gov. Holden with all his might. His conduct shows that he sought and made an excuse for stirring up strife. Mr. Turner is influenced by old party prejudices, while Gov. Holden has shown a disposition to forget party differences by making the large majority of his appointments from the old whig party.

It is said that Mr. Turner's petition for pardon covered forty foolscap pages, filled with party slang and denunciation—nothing more than a reflection upon and insult to the Governor and President. If a man feels compelled to ask pardon, propriety at least would suggest that he refrain from abuse and denunciation of those of whom he is asking a favor.—Charlotte Democrat.

PROFITS OF THE EXPRESS BUSINESS.—A letter from New York, dated October 2d, says:

"The profitableness of the express business has been fully illustrated this week by the declaration of a handsome extra dividend, over which the lucky shareholders of the American Express Company's stock are rejoicing considerably. This Company paid, in 1864, dividends on a capital of $2,000,000, amounting to hirty-eight per cent. in cash, and fifty per cent. in paid-up stock. On its capital, thus increased to $3,000,0000, it has already declared, in 1865, cash dividends of 26 per cent., and twenty-five per cent. in stock, with every reasonable prospect of an additional twenty-five per cent. within the coming four months. What wonder, then, that the stock of this institution is marketable at three times its value? And of what use is it to dabble in the Wall street 'fancies,' when fortunes can so much more easily and speedily be realized by permanent investments in concerns whose operations are as money-making, and as sure as gold-mining itself?"

A CONTRADICTION.—The Star contains the following statement, in large type:

"We expressed our conviction yesterday that the piece of alarm news published by the Times on the subject of relations between the United States and France in regard to Mexico would turn out to be wholly unfounded. We are now in a position to give our readers an authoritative assurance that our conjecture was perfectly correct. Part of the statement by the American correspondent of the Times must have referred to an old transaction. The remainder, that which told of a menacing despatch lately addressed by Mr. Seward to France, was entirely baseless, a mere absurdity. No such despatch has been forwarded or written. The United States Government has always frankly expressed its opinion on the subject of French intervention in Mexico.—But neither its policy nor its tone has recently undergone any change.

ELECTION NOTICES.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF THE COUNTY OF WAKE.—Having been solicited to become a candidate for a seat in the [illegible] House of Commons, I take this opportunity of announcing myself a candidate. If elected, my vote on all measures will be for the strictest and most economical management of all State and county affairs. I shall oppose the borrowing of money by issuing State bonds, which, at the present time, would have to be sold at a very great sacrifice. Economy is, in my opinion, the only safe road.

I have been raised, and have lived all my life, and am known to nearly all the voters in the county. My views and opinions are, therefore, as well known as I could make them, should I visit every precinct. I am opposed to negro suffrage and negro testimony. If elected, I promise to make you a faithful servant.

I shall support W. W. Holden for Governor.

nov2-4tde H. O. PARKER.

ANDREW JOHNSON, HOLDEN UNION TICKET. DR. WM. SLOAN, of Gaston County, will be supported most heartily for the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, by all loyal men looking to early restoration and general harmony.

Dr. Sloan's record will furnish no data for his rejection at the hands of the Federal Congress. This, the Charlotte District, is now the 6th.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this county for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.

The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them ought to be repealed.

He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with their indispensable engagements, will so occupy my whole time as to forbid my mingling much, if any, with the people. I shall represent your sentiments on all constitutional measures, if they are known to me.

I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence I shall strive to merit it by my services. Very respectfully, yours, oct30-tde B. F. MOORE.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk of Wake county, at the ensuing election on the 9th of November, and if elected, will serve you with industry and fidelity.

It will be impossible for me to see you all before the election, and you will naturally wish to know what I am for and against. I am for David A. Wicker, alias Snider, for Superior Court Clerk, and against Bunting, alias Mose, and Buck Moore.

Hoping you will vote for me, I am your obedient servant, [oct27-tde] DAVID A WICKER.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most available mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts were successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before deciding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers to reduce their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and reliable dealers, believing, after so many years' existence, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones. Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Having personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and am satisfied at his success." WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful as it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising merely bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we find an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.

The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tape, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—Just as we were ready to go to press, a fire broke out in Mr. Williford Upchurch's grocery store, on the southeast corner of Market and Wilmington streets. We regret to say that every effort to subdue the flames was unsuccessful, and in less than one hour the entire square was in ashes.—We shall give particulars to-morrow. In the meantime, we think especial praise due Capt. A. M. Garoutte and other army officers for valuable co-operation with the citizens in endeavors to extinguish the fire.

HARD TACK.—Major J. W. Barriger, chief commissary of subsistence in this department, has an advertisement in to-day which it may be well for hungry men to read. There is not a doubt but that the proposals will induce sprightly competition.

Later from Europe.

FARTHER POINT, Nov. 6.—The steamship Peruvian, from Londonderry on the 27th ult., has arrived.

The cotton sales for the week preceding her departure were forty-four thousand bales to speculators and exporters. The market opened steady, but become irregular and closed half pence lower than first buyings. For American and Brazil there had been a previous decline of one penny. On the 24th, fair Orleans 22¼; middling Mobile and Texas 22; fair Uplands 23½; Middling 22. Market closed firm at advance of fourth to half pence.

Liverpool, Oct. 26.—Flour firm and six pence higher. Wheat has upward tendency; corn same.

LATEST.

Breadstuffs advancing and prices higher. Provisions scarce.

London, Oct. 27.—Consols, for money, 88¼a88⅜; U. S. 5 20's 56¼a56¾.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Flour declined five to ten cents. Wheat declined one to three cents. Corn unchanged. Beef steady. Pork heavy. Whiskey closed firm. Sugar quiet. Cotton had a declining tendency—sales thousand bales at fifty five to fifty six cents. Naval stores steady.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Cotton has declined from one to two cents. Fifteen hundred bales were sold to-day at 54 a 55 cents. Flour has advanced 5 to 10 cents. The sales to-day amounted to 9,500 barrels. Wheat has advanced 1 to 2 cents. Corn is advancing. Beef steady. Pork buoyant. Lard firm. Whiskey firm at $2.39. Sugar firm. Coffee quiet. Naval stores quiet. Gold 47 cts. premium.

Petition for Jeff Davis.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—A delegation of ladies from Baltimore waited on the President to-day and presented a mammoth memorial asking the release and pardon of Mr. Davis.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Official agricultural reports say that the injuries to the wheat crop from wet weather were over-estimated. The corn crop will be the largest ever grown in this country.

The Tunisian Embassy took leave of the President to day. They have been the recipients of the highest honors during their sojourn at the capitol. They leave the United States next week.

Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The weekly bank statement shows increase in loans of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The decrease in specie is one hundred and eighty thousand dollars, while the deposits amount to eighty thousand dollars.

Preparing for Cholera.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov 7.—A meeting of the City Council was held to day to make special appointments to Board of Health. Afterwards inspectors were selected to attend to the cleanliness of the city.

Wirz to be Hung.

WASHINGTON. Nov. 7.—The President has approved the sentence passed upon Henry Wirz, the keeper of the Andersonville prison. The commission found him guilty of the offences charged in the indictment and sentenced him to be hung. The order has been issued and he will be executed next Friday.

Full Investigation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A full examination will be made by four eminent Surgeons relative to the cholera on the steamer Atlanta, now in quarantine at this port.

Massachusetts Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7, 12 o'clock, p. m.—Returns have been received from several State elections held to-day, but of an indefinite character except as to Massachusetts, which has gone largely Republican.

N. P. Banks is elected to Congress from the sixth district.

New York Election.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 7, 1 p. m.—Dispatches from New York say the indications are that the State has been carried by the Union or liberal party.

Gen. Slocum, the democratic nominee, has been defeated by his opponent for the Secretaryship of State.

Ben Wood, editor New York News, has been chosen State Senator.

The democratic majority in the city has been lessened very materially since the last Presidential election. Full returns, official, cannot be received from all the counties in less than ten days. The successful party is much elated.

Result in New Jersey.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7, 11 p. m.—The returns received from New Jersey are meagre, but they indicate Union gains.

[The method of reporting adopted by our telegraphic correspondent, in applying the terms "republican" and "Union," confuses us somewhat. Only one fact is entirely clear: the democrats have gone up the spout.]

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.

By the Governor: W. R. RICHARDSON, Private Sec.
